

Meet Liz Hagan!

My name is Elisabeth Hagen...or as most people know me as Liz. I have been an Early Childhood Center Director at Little Steps Christian Preschool since 2011 and I am over the moon to be joining Coast Kids Preschool in the spring. My family and I have enjoyed being a part of the community here at North Coast Calvary Chapel for a couple of years now.

I come to Coast Kids Preschool having earned my Bachelor's Degree in Administration from San Diego Christian College and Master's Degree from Ashford University in Education. I currently serve on the Board with Church Related Early Childhood Education Fellowship in Southern California, providing inspiration, information and a sense of community for church related early childhood professionals.

I am excited to share my love for Jesus and passion for teaching within Early Childhood Education here at Coast Kids Preschool.

My passion is developing positive relationships within the community, working with students and families in reaching new academic, social and spiritual milestones, supporting teachers in reaching their greatest potential and fostering a positive school culture by strengthening the connection between school, church and home.

My husband Trevor and I have been married for 13 years and have two sons Kyllian (12) and Kayden (8). When I am not on campus you may find me outdoors enjoying the beach, playing pickle ball or trying to keep up with my sons' sports...any activity outside in the sunshine will do just fine for me!

I look forward to meeting each of you and learning how I can best support you throughout this school year and many more to come.

In His Service,
Elisabeth Hagen
